EMERGENCY MEETING TO DISCUSS

EdChoice Vouchers: A Threat to the Existence of the Public Common School System

A discussion of the EdChoice Voucher lawsuit before Franklin County Common Pleas Judge Jaiza Page. Vouchers go on trial in 2023.

Vouchers threaten the existence of public education in Ohio, and lawmakers plan to increase funding for vouchers by up to $1.13 billion.

Learn why districts should be part of the lawsuit.

And why teachers, educators, parents, school workers, and our children are harmed by private school vouchers.
